

Who I Am Today

Verse 1

If my heart was never broken, And I'd never felt the pain, If my spirit wasn't burdened, and I hadn't knelt to pray, Where would I be now, If all these things were changed?, Sometimes triumph takes a trial, To really understand His grace

Chorus

I wanna thank You for the doors, You closed along the way, All the times that You said no, In the prayers I prayed someday, For the trials I had to face, The mistakes that I made, Lord, You knew what I needed, And it's made me who I am today

Verse 2

I'm so thankful for the storms, For it's there that I found grace, Your mercy and forgiveness, Gave my heart a resting place, If it had not been for Calvary, I'd have no song to sing, But you did the Father's will, And I owe You everything

Chorus

I wanna thank You for the doors, You closed along the way, All the times that You said no, In the prayers I prayed someday, For the trials I had to face, The mistakes that I made, Lord, You knew what I needed, And it's made me who I am today

Bridge, I didn't choose to walk the valleys deep, Or climb the mountains high, But without them I don't know where I would be, He didn't say life would be easy, Or that I'd enjoy the ride, But He promised that He'd take good care of me

Tag

For the trials I had to face, The mistakes that I made, Lord, You knew what I needed, And it's made me who I am today, Yes, it's made me who I am today